

Scholarship Application and Award Guidelines

The Jane Doe No More, Inc. Scholarship offers assistance with secondary education at a 2- or 4- year institution or accredited technical/arts school for individuals determined to be best qualified and likely to carry out the mission of the organization in their academic career and/or career following graduation.

The following are the requirements for an application for a continuing education scholarship being considered for review by our scholarship committee. Failure to fulfill every requirement may, at the sole discretion of the Scholarship Committee, disqualify an applicant from the review process.

Completed application consists of:

1. Completed Application

2. Essay on how you aspire to incorporate the mission of Jane Doe No More into your education and/or career following graduation. "Jane Doe No More is dedicated to improving the way society responds to victims of sexual assault." (500 words or less)

3. Two letters of reference:

- One personal, non-family, reference
- One from a teacher, professor, social worker, victim advocate or other person involved in carrying out a mission surrounding the issue of sexual assault who is familiar with you and your education and/or career path.

4. Proof of academic standing (high school or college transcript)

5. List all additional loans, scholarships, and funding requested, list amount and organization. If none, state none.

6 Proof of enrollment (College acceptance letter, current college transcript, etc.)

Important Dates:

February 17, 2012 – Last day applications will be accepted.

March 2, 2012 – Applicants notified of status.

March 16, 2012 - Scholarships awarded at the 3rd Annual Dr. Henry C. Lee Award & Recognition Dinner.

Funding Source: The annual Dr. Henry C. Lee Award & Recognition Dinner will be the funding source for the scholarship program. One $1,000 scholarship will be awarded in 2012.

Scholarship Committee: The Scholarship Committee will be made up of an independent group of individuals to include, but not be limited to, a Jane Doe No More board member, a community member and an individual currently involved in education.

All scholarships awarded under this program are determined by the Scholarship Committee of Jane Doe No More, Inc., and all of the committee decisions are final. Jane Doe No More, Inc. reserves the right to distribute scholarship funding at its own discretion.

Any information submitted with this application will become the property of Jane Doe No More, Inc.

Recipients of the Jane Doe No More, Inc. scholarship are required to submit proof of acceptance and registration at the institution named in the scholarship application in a timely manner.

All information contained in the scholarship application will be utilized in the determination of each scholarship winner.

A personal interview may be required at the discretion of the scholarship committee, and may be done by one or more committee members.

Applications for the annual scholarships will be completed in full and returned no later than February 17, 2012.

All scholarship and grant award recipients will be announced on March 16, 2012.

Failure to attend the university, college or vocational program will result in cancellation of the scholarship award. The forfeited award may be granted to another scholarship applicant, at the sole discretion of Jane Doe No More, Inc.

Scholarship recipients will be required to allow their name and likeness to be published on the Jane Doe No More, Inc. website and in promotional materials announcing the award of the scholarship.

All questions, comments or concerns should be directed to:

Jane Doe No More, Inc.
Scholarship Committee
203 Church Street Rear
Naugatuck, CT 06770
203.729.0245
info@janedoenomore.org